While upon the subject, it may be well to put the public on their guard in respect to another matter connected with this magnificent work of matter connected with this magnificent work of Internal Improvement. There is a corporate body in existence, by the name of the Cairo City Company, who, under the provisions of their charter, could claim the whole grant of land made to the State of Illinois toward aiding the construction of the Central Railroad; and as there has been a large amount of stock issued by this Company, and may probably be offered for sale under the delusion that the holders will divide the benefits of this grant, of nearly three million of acres of the public may probably be olifected or sale under under database that the holders will divide the benefits of this grant, of nearly three million of acres of the public lands, the facts that exist in regard to any supposed rights of the Company should be known.

Mr Douclas of Ill was opposed to this grant, so long as the benefits were to accrue to this incorporated company; and to obviate the objections entertained by himself and other Western Senators, the stockholders of the Company by a resolution authorized and instructed the President there of, under the seal of the Company, to release all rights which they have or are supposed to have under such charter, and all amendments made thereto. The release is upon the condition, that the Legislature of the State of Illinois, at its next biennial session which convenes in January, 1851, shall accept such release, and the State complete the road within ten years from the date of such acceptance. Both of these conditions will be complied with by the State, beyond a reasonable doubt; so that all rights under this charter and oubt; so that all rights under this charter and amendments are now vested in the State of Iti-nois. I am promised to morrow a copy of this re-lesse, which, as it is a matter of public interest, I will at once forward you for publication. Clio.

WEST INDIES.

The intended withdrawal of Sir Charles Grey from the Government of Jamaica is announced. The rumor of his retirement to the more lucrative position of Governor of Canada is believed to be correct. The Kingston Journal says: That Sir Charles Grey expects himself to leave this Gov. ernment for that of Canada seems implied from the fact, that all his Excellency's late conversations have been characterized by expressions such as these-"Were I going to remain here," "If I should remain here, &c.

In relation to the Island Loan, the Journal holds the following language :

We understand that private letters have reached this island, stating that not with standing the alteration in the Loan Act during the last session of Assembly, still considerable doubts exist whether the amount will be raised in the absence of the Government will be raised in the absence of the Government guarantee.

Ootton planting has been prosecuted to a considerable extent in Jamaica. Several of the lababitants residing on the plains of Liguanea availing themselves of the seasonable falls of rain within the last few weeks, have been thus employing themselves, though more for the purpose of trying whether it can be profitably and successfully raised in the lowlands, than for any consideration of immediate gain. There are not a few once more returning to the planting of Goinea Corn.

The sailing of H. M. ship indefatigable (50) from Port Royal for Grey Town, had excited a sensation. The Kangston Jaurnal learns that the object of sending the frigate to that port is owing to ject of sending the frigate to that port is owing to a requisition made by her Majesty's Consul at that place, to have a large vessel of war there, notwithstanding that her Majesty's brig Persian, and solr Rermuda, were lying there at the end of last menth. There really must be something expected in that quarter (adds the Journal) to require the presence of a frigate and two other vessels of war at Grey Town.

Sir Charles Grey has disagreed with the Loan Commissioners of the Island as to the construction which the majority of them have put upon some of the provisions of the Loan Bill, and though at a former meeting a resolution was put and carried contrary to the opinion of his Excellency, Sir Charles has virtually negatived it, by declaring that as Governor he did not feel himself authorized in carrying out any such resolution.

At other times a dead calm provailed with most oppressing heat. As the manufacutring process had closed on nearly all the sugar estates, the planters were not so much inconvenienced by the weather as they otherwise would have been. Attention was being paid to the young cames. Good accounts are given of the young cotton plants put in as an experiment in different places. INDIANOLA, Yexas, Tuesday, Sept. 3. This place has sprung up rapidly. Two years back there were but two shantees, now there are several good houses, with a population of about 450, a long wharf, with an extensive depôt, a Temperance and Masonic hall, and much union among the town folks who do a spirited business. Mr. Bart lett and party per steamer Portland, from New-Orleans, arrived on the 30th uit all well. The commissioner was received at La Saune by Col. Mc Clelland and the Commissary, on landing here from the government ferry steamer, by Lieut. Strain. and at the encampment along shore by the engineers, surveyors and mechanics drawn up at their

The good feeling and spirit evinced by the Tehans of Indianola is, for the extent of the place unprecedented. About ten leading men heregave several special entertainments on a large scaleseveral special entertainments on a large scale.

At the first and fullest many very fine sentiments were expressed by the presiding townsmen towards the government and United States, with hearty desires for the success of the commission on foot in this country. The commissioner clearly and fully laid down the objects of the government, setting forth the interest taken by the late and present in the according for which neither. fally laid down the objects of the government, ting forth the interest taken by the late and present Congress in the expedition, for which neithercare nor expense had been, or would be spared, and after detailing all local particulars, concluded with the bope that Indianola might be the nearest terminus to the Western route, which is one of the objects of the Commission. The military order preserved in camp, and the gentlemanly deportment of the officers has called forth much regard here as manifested by every facility being given to provide accommodation and assistance in the preparation now being made to send forward the different parties. Water in this neighborhood is bad and very scarce after a drouth, the military party having to send back an escort for water and forage; only to be had here and at Victoria, 38 miles off. The weather has been extremely hot—thermometer 92° to 98°, but for a Norther at night, sleep was only to a few cut and dry ones. INDIAN OUTRAGE.—The steamboat Gen. Shields has been lying aground near the Choctaw Agency Landing, some thirty miles above Van Buren, Arh. and the crew all discharged but the carpenter and mate who were left in charge of her. A few days since four Cherokees, in open daylight, went on board, and they found the carpenter and mate separate, in the two extremes of the boat. The Indians separated: two gathered upon one of the white men and two upon the other; knives and sticks were used. The carpenter escaped, got upon the Choctaw side of the river, and proceeded to Fort Smith. While escaping he heard the cries of the mate, and believed he was killed; but he was the mate, and believed he was killed; but he was afterward found alive in the woods. The laddans then broke open the safe, took what money they could find, all the carpenter's clothing, with some other valuable property, and then departed.
